4th Annual Embracing the Spirit Retreat

“Be still, and know that I am God”

(Psalm 46:10)

How do we find our point of stillness, and live from our own center instead of our circumference? We begin by taking time to sit and be still. It is then we can hear the whisper of God and we can recall who we are, what we know and find what we have lost. As Fr. Richard Rohr writes, “I believe that we have no real access to who we really are except in God. Only when we rest in God can we find the safety, the spaciousness, and the scary freedom to be who we are, all that we are, more than we are and less than we are.”

Join us as we take time to realize a great blessing awaits us here, now in this very moment. Creation beckons us to be still and rest in the arms of love. The community of St. Luke and the Women of the Well ministry invite you to share a day and be still.

We are excited to announce the day will be lead by Sister Addie Lorraine Walker, SSND, formerly, the Provincial Leader for the School Sisters of Notre Dame of the Dallas Province. Sister Addie holds a Master’s degree from Xavier University and a doctorate in Religion and Education from Boston College. Sister Adie has served as an educator at both Assumption Seminary and Oblate School of Theology.

Sr. Addie will guide us as we discover the awakening that waits in the stillness. Through song, scripture and stories, this day will offer you the gift of being present in the stillness of the moment.

Please join us on September 27, 2008 at the Oblate School of Theology for a day of prayer and reflection. The cost for the event is $30.00 this fee includes all materials needed for the day as well as breakfast and lunch. There are a limited number of scholarships available, if assistance is needed, please contact Diana Saenz at 275-8233 or Sarah Garcia at 355- 2263.
